

Lyra's cap

by Sarah Sutherland

sarahsutherland@excite.com

I was so smitten by the costumes in the Golden Compass, and for this cap at least, one wonders: how often can something so desirable be achieved so easily? I whipped this up in an evening and thought I would share. If you are lucky you will even have some yarn in your stash that will work.

About the designer

Sarah enjoys knitting and values warm ears, but realizes that exposed foreheads when wearing winter hats only really make sense in regions where there is little risk of getting frostbite while walking to work.
